

Mr. Sean Fouché

Currently Lecturing:

Heriot Watt University | Edinburgh Business School – MBA MSc

- Project Management
- Strategic Planning
- Competitive Strategy

Academic Profile:

- Master of Business Administration (MBA) with Specialism in Strategic Planning – Heriot Watt University
- Project Management Professional (PMP) - Project Management Institute (PMI)
- Currently pursuing Doctorate of Business Administration (DBA) - Heriot Watt University

Training and Development:

- Voice Training - SBCS
- Teaching Lecturers to Teach Critical Thinking – SBCS
- Emotional Intelligence - SBCS
- Train the Trainer - SBCS
- Leadership Seminar - Lifestyle Solutions
- Use of IT in Public Administration - Singapore Cooperation Programme, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Singapore
- Workshops in curriculum development – Ministry of Education
- Attended EBS Conference in August 2012 at EBS, Scotland

Experience:

Mr. Fouché has been lecturing at SBCS since July 2009 and currently lectures in the areas of Project Management, Competitive Strategy and Strategic Planning at the MBA level. Previously he lectured on the ACCA program and Corporate Training Centre.

His professional career spans over twenty years during which time he has gained experience in varying sectors: private and public sectors, state owned companies and regional agencies. In so doing he has also served in several industries; media/telecommunication, finance, health, education and regional security.