Experience:

Upon completion of her ACCA examinations, she worked as an auditor with PricewaterhouseCoopers (PWC), where she was engaged in the preparation of financial statements in compliance with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) as well as audits of the oil and gas sector and the financial services sector.

After her tenure at PWC, she moved into the public sector, as a financial officer of the Ministry of Local Government. There, she headed the accounting department, and worked closely with Government Ministers, Permanent Secretaries, NGO's and the public at large.

Subsequently, she offered her services to SBCS Global Learning Institute, and has been lecturing part time in areas such as the Business Management, Accounting, Auditing and Negotiation.

Additionally, she currently serves as a training assistant to an ACCA approved Continuing Professional Development provider, who provides accounting standards and audit quality training to Multinational Corporations.
